Professional Locksmiths

Career Opportunity

Thank you for considering locksmithing as a career. Being a locksmith requires someone who enjoys puzzles and learning, if you think you have what it takes, Glens Key might be the right fit.

We are looking for the right candidate to hire/train in the art of (but not limited to): Key Duplication/Origination, Lock Picking/Rekeying/Master Keying/Repairing/Installing, Safe Opening/Repair/Combo Change, and Access Control Installation/Servicing/Programming, etc. We work on a wide variety of things: Business, Residential, Vehicle, you name it. We promise there will always be more to learn.

This is a full-time position that offers benefits (health insurance, retirement, paid holidays, paid vacation, and on the job training). Starting wages will reflect ability.

Apprentice Locksmith Qualifications-

You must...

1. Be 18 years of age or older.
2. Have a valid driver license and a clean driving record.
3. Have a clean criminal record. The SLCPD does background checks on locksmiths.
4. Have worked for one employer for at least one full year in the past 5 years.
5. Be able to lift at least 75 pounds.
6. Have mechanical abilities and be able to pass an aptitude test.
7. Have a basic understanding of electronics.
8. Have a basic understanding and ability to use personal computers (PCs).
9. Enjoy solving mechanical and electronic puzzles.

If you are ready for our aptitude test, please fill out the information below and return it in person, email, or by fax. This will indicate that you have reviewed and agreed to our Qualifications.
